PHI MU ALPHA PROGRAM

MUSIC FRATERNITY READY FOR CONCERT TUESDAY

Music from the pens of such composers as Debussy, Richard Strauss, Moussorgsky, Simons, and Brahms will be featured at the Phi Mu Alpha concert Tuesday evening in the Little Theater at 8:15. With the return of five men to the music fraternity from the service, the organization is able to break several years' silence by beginning once more their presentation of two concerts annually.

TRYOUTS OVER FOR REVELRIES

All tryouts for Revelries have been completed and rehearsals are underway. Reports are that Ken McGill is "doing a bang-up job" along with the rest of the cast.

Through an error, it was stated that the girls in the chorus have an average height of 5-feet 2-inches. The actual average is 5-feet 4½-inches, with a variation from 5-feet 3-inches to 5-feet 8-inches.

Al Johnson claims he is being framed by columnist Margaret Moore and girls of the chorus, who are plotting to catch Johnson out under the mistletoe at the corner of the Art wing, but Al is playing "hard to get."

Class Councils!

A joint meeting of the freshman and sophomore council will be held today at 12 o'clock in room 24.

Purpose of the joint meeting is to discuss plans for a mixer dance February 8 and a joint dance. Stephen Voorhees, sophomore class president, and Bruce McNell, freshman chairman, urge their councils to attend this meeting.

Cast For Next Play Will Be Selected Thursday and Friday

Tryouts for "Junior Miss," popular light comedy which is to be the next production of the Speech and Drama department, will take place Thursday and Friday, January 31 and February 1, at 4 o'clock in the Little Theater. Scripts for the play are on reserve in the Library for those who wish to read the play before trying out.

Mr. Wendell Johnson of the Speech faculty will direct the play, which will be presented on three consecutive nights, March 7, 8, and 9.

The comedy concerns the problems of adolescence. The plot boils down to the doings of a teen-age girl and her group of friends at the "awkward" age and who are exhibiting all the signs of growing up. They are constantly astonishing their elders with their speech, actions, desires, and interests. The plot makes possible many humorous situations and dialogues.

In addition to the seven or eight main parts, there are many bit parts, mostly for boys. Everyone interested is asked to be present for the tryouts.

Virginia Visitor To Arrive Today

Bob Finley, 1944 student body president of the University of Virginia, will arrive on campus today for a week's visit. He will speak to the student body Thursday from 12 to 1 in room 155 of the Speech wing.

Finley will speak to the CCF Tuesday noon at 12 o'clock and will also be available to any other student body group that would care to have him attend their meeting, announces Dorian Baker, CCF president.

Finley won the Eastern Inter-Collegiate boxing championship in 1944 and was boxing captain at the University of Virginia the same year.

SPARTAN SHOP HAS NEW BOOK STORE MANAGER

Mr. Roland M. Atkinson of San Jose will be the new manager of the Spartan Shop book store starting February 1.

Mr. Atkinson will replace S. Charles "Bud" Stewart, who is resigning to accept a position with a San Francisco firm.

"I will have a chance to get acquainted with my family again, after four years of commuting to San Francisco," states Mr. Atkinson, who has been working as material specialist and technical buyer for a shipyard in South San Francisco. Before that, he was department manager for an exporting firm.

"When I get settled," declares Mr. Atkinson, "I hope to get acquainted with the faculty, students, and their needs so I can cooperate with them fully."

Spartan Basketball Team Makes Clean Sweep of Weekend Series Victory Over Cadets

Friday night on their home court, the San Jose State Spartans won a hard fought victory from a scrappy Merchant Marine Cadet School by a score of 47-42. Led by Phil Harmon, former Penn State starting forward, the visiting team put up a spirited fight all through the ball game to have the half time score 32-21 stand which in no way showed the fight that the Cadets were putting up.

Spartan high scorer Bert Robinson poured in five field goals to total 10 points. Forward Ed Maggetti and center "Bulldog" Lindsey closely followed him with 9 points. High scorer of the visiting squad, Paul Blowers, totalled 14 points to make him high scorer for the evening.

The game was a hard fought contest all the way, with the Cadets coming within two points of the Spartans at the twelve minute spot in the first half, just to the Spartan commencing a fast bread attack with three forwards and two guards in instead of the usual combination. The Spartan floor work was outstanding as Borg, Stevenson and Holmes rendered their usual steady accurate passing attack, to completely place the Cadets at the mercy of the home squad.

WORLD STUDENT SERVICE FUND DRIVE

WSSF DRIVE GOES ANOTHER WEEK; TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS NOW $808.75

At the conclusion of the first week of the World Student Service Fund drive on campus, a total of $808.75 has been paid or pledged to the cause of student aid in war-torn countries of the world. $418.25 has been paid in cash, and $390.50 is pledged. The drive, originally scheduled to run for only one week, has been extended to run through this week, in the anticipation that a much nearer approach can be made to the goal of $3000 from San Jose State.

HIGH AVERAGE

Special emphasis will be placed by the canvassers on contacting faculty members as well as students, who thus far have contributed on the average far in excess of the $1 apiece that would be necessary for the 3000 students on campus to meet the goal. In some cases individual student donations have exceeded $50.

Arrangements have been made for payment of pledges at the Business office.

FIRST HAND NEWS

Dick Baker of Columbia university, teaching in the graduate school of Journalism in Chungking, wrote the following comments for Motive, April, 1945: "This migration of colleges is something you have all heard and read about many times. So had I. Now I have seen it with my own eyes, and I see the human beings who are involved. I see the mud and bamboo shacks these kids live in. I see their straw sandals and feet purple with the cold. . . . The physical suffering (Continued on Page 2)

DAILY ADDS ACP SERVICE

Something new has been added! In the future the Spartan Daily masthead will carry a logotype denoting the membership of this publication in the Associated Collegiate Press.

This is a continuous news service, collaborating with 1200 other colleges in the exchange of news of general college interest. The organization was originally created to concern itself with the progress and improvement of college newspapers and newspaper standards.

Recently the Journalism department was accredited by the American Association of Journalism School Administrators, and Dwight Bentel has been elected to membership in the group.

Wednesday Is Only Clothing Drive Day Here---Don't Forget!

Don't forget to bring your bundles of clothes Wednesday, as this is the only day of the clothing drive at State!

Boxes will be put out Wednesday near the Science building, Art building, Morris Dailey auditorium, and the Library arch. Don't overlook one article of clothing, no matter how insignificant it may seem.

In Norway, a recent survey indicates, there will be nearly three million pairs of wet feet this winter. The thousands of pairs of reconditioned Army shoes sent to Norway do not begin to meet the total need.

Did you have your house equipped with black-out curtains? From Greece comes the request for black material which can be made into religious habits and robes. War widows of many European countries appeal for material for mourning clothes. Many elderly people prefer black and can turn black-out curtains into skirts and dresses. So, to show your thankfulness that those black-out curtains really weren't necessary here, bring them to school so they can be sent over there where they really are necessary.

Tea Room Reopens

The College Tea Room will open tomorrow instead of Thursday, as previously announced. Make your reservations now with Mrs. Joan Greenwood in the Home Economics office. Faculty and students are invited to enjoy the 50 cent luncheons to be given each Tuesday and Thursday noon in room 13 of the Home Economics building.

Coach Walt McPherson's San Jose State College basketball team made a clean sweep of its weekend series by nosing out the great College of the Pacific quintet 60-58 in a wild game that saw a total of 60 fouls called, at Stockton on Saturday night. The Spartans spent the first period building up a commanding 37-21 lead which was the way the score stood at the half way mark, but were forced to devote the final session to desperate defensive measures to retain it.

The game was rough and rugged from the outset with the home team being penalized 33 times by the officials. The Spartans may have paid dearly for their victory as Wes Stevenson came up with a cracked elbow during a scrimmage under the basket. Whether the injury will put the local star out for the rest of the season could not be determined until a more thorough examination was made.

Ed Magetti, ace forward of the Spartans turned in 17 points to cop high point honors for both teams, though he was followed closely by Johnny Guilfoyle of Pacific who made 15.

Seldon Edner Honored

Proclaimed San Jose's Young Man of the Year at the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce "Distinguished Service Award" banquet last week was Lt. Col. Seldon R. Edner, former "State" student.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric O. Edner of 159 Race St., Col. Edner attended San Jose schools and San Jose State college, where he became interested in flying and was a member of the college flying club.

For flying combat as an officer in the All-American Squadron of the RAF during the critical days of the Blitz, 27-year-old Edner was awarded the British 1939 Star and the British DFC, presented to him personally by King George VI in ceremonies at Buckingham Palace.

While in England he met and married a Scottish girl, Helen Laird Young of Edinburgh, who arrived in New York on V-J Day and was present at the banquet last week to see him honored by his home town.

Dr. Ralph Fields, spokesman for the committee of judges, said, "Colonel Edner, with his brilliant war record, was chosen to receive the award both as a personal tribute and on behalf of all San Jose's young men—all of whom did their part toward bringing the war to a victorious end."

is ghastly but the spirits and minds of the students are suffering too. . . .

"The most important thing that has kept these students alive and studying has been international student relief. It is efficiently and humanely administered. Give everything you can to the relief funds. No amount of sacrifice this entails for you can match what these kids have gone through."

To "start the ball rolling" on the Memorial chapel campaign was the primary purpose of the Alumni Association's dinner at the Napoli Cafe last Wednesday night, and start it they did.

Cagers Nose Out Merchant Marine

Winning their fifth straight game by a score of 45-16, the Spartan reserve squad completely outclassed the Cadet Reserve squad. The reserves have won nine out of the last ten games. Waterman, forward, led the Washington Square Reserve team to victory with ten points, closely followed by Sam Lujonga and Elgin Martin with eight and six points respectively. The ball play by the Reserve starting club was, as usual good on passing, and the Reserve second stringers were really in the fight, with Burtner, Siebert and Kling being among the most outstanding in that respect.

The opposition furnished the reserves was by no means anything which they could be excessively proud of beating, for the Merchant Marine team had not one player over seventeen on the club, and for several of their players, this was their first season at playing basketball. High scorer for the visiting team was a starting forward named Karner who racked up nine points to be the second highest scorer of the ball game.
